

Research Assistant – International Relations

The Centre For Applied Social Sciences (TCAS) is recruiting a Research Assistant for its upcoming project on Indian Strategic Thought. The position is based out of New Delhi. We are seeking applicants with a master's degree or higher with fairly adequate exposure to documentary repositories such as the National Archives of India (NAI) and the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library (NMML) in New Delhi. Suitable candidates should send their applications before 30th June 2023.

TCAS is a New Delhi-based research foundation that encourages and facilitates theoretical and applied research into hitherto unattended areas and developing trends in Social Sciences. Instituted in 2023 by a team of professionals and academics, TCAS is a non-partisan research foundation that intends to attend the broadest swathe of social science research from and focused on India.

Eligibility:

- MA in International Relations or equivalent (candidates from allied disciplines such as political science or history with adequate knowledge will be considered).
- Previous knowledge of working in archives is desirable.
- Candidates who have done literature reviews will be preferred.
- Previous RA experience in the same discipline is a plus.

Role and responsibility:

- Preparing literature review
- Finding and collating archival sources
- Additional research assistance as required by the Principal Investigator (PI)

Remuneration:

Based on education and experience.

Application package:

Please send the entire package as a single pdf to info@tcas.org that includes

(1) Cover letter (2) Writing sample (published/unpublished, preferably lit review) (3) Academic CV.